

Swashbuckling Quiz!

1. What does avast mean? "Avast ye, scallywags. You're making too much noise!"
a) Mast b) Treasure Chest c) Stop d) Parrot
2. What does jack mean? "Fly the jack at the front of the ship."
a) A drink b) A flag c) A giant wave d) An enemy
3. What does doubloons mean? "Keep away from these doubloons. They're all mine."
a) Pieces of gold b) A shipmate c) Heavy winds d) The sails of a ship
4. What does sail ho mean? "Sail ho! Prepare for battle!"
a) It's time to sail home b) Watch out for that rock c) Lower the sail d) Another ship is up ahead
5. What does lubber mean? "This lubber needs some pirate lessons."
a) A dish made with seafood b) Someone who's unfamiliar with the sea
c) The bottom of the ship d) A bad storm
6. What does lily-livered mean? "Stop being so lily-livered and ready the cannons!"
a) A sick sailor b) Rotten food c) Getting seasick d) Someone who is weak 7. What does cog mean? "Cog straight ahead. Clear the decks."
a) A small warship b) A cannon ball c) The rudder of a ship d) A lightning storm
8. What does scupper mean? "Scupper that! I need to prepare the sails."
a) Pour me a drink b) Find the land c) Bring that here d) Catch the enemy 9. What does cackle fruit mean? "I'm hungry. Pass the cackle fruit."
a) Pineapple b) Hen's eggs c) Breakfast d) A freshly caught crab 10. What does hang the jib mean? "This is no time to hang the jib. We have work to do."
a) To frown b) To dance c) To sing d) To laugh

- ANSWERS
1. c) Stop
 2. b) A flag
 3. a) Pieces of gold
 4. d) Another ship is up ahead
 5. b) Someone who's unfamiliar with the sea
 6. d) Someone who is weak
 7. a) A small warship
 8. c) Bring that here
 9. b) Hen's eggs
 10. a) To frown